

MUGS MATTERS

HELLO folks!

Spring is bursting all over and Meg and I are convinced that global warming has well and truly hit our garage.

Why? Well we woke up this morning to find a bed of crocus all over our bonnets, where our blankets usually sit.

After the initial surprise, we were so delighted with the colour and the cute little plants, that we decided it had really put a spring in our step and we set off on an adventure round the countryside to see all the other flowering plants.

We bet you have all noticed the great blooms too and have tales to tell. If you have, why not send in to us Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk and who knows you may win a wee prize.

MUG

COMPETITION CORNER

We are feeling blooming marvellous today with all this good weather and all the flowers and plants sprouting up all over the place.

It has been a real tonic for us all and Meg and I have had a great time today, zooming around the countryside picking out our favourite colours and plants.

We took Peter Rigg the Artist along for the ride and boy was he impressed. So much so, that he drew this fabulous cartoon for all you clever artists to fill in.

So get your best pens out and glitter too and give the cartoon a bit of a splash of colour to keep us happy.

It is all for fun, but feel free to send it to us for our garage wall, via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk,

COMPETITION CORNER

As you will gather by now, we are sporting a floral look today and enjoying all those petals around us.

Meg and I just love flowers and we hope you do too. To test your knowledge on all things floral and flowery, we have put down our trowels and watering cans and come up with a super dooper flower wordsearch.

All you have to do is find the words on the right. It's easy peasy, lemon squeezy and just for fun. So enjoy and if you are feeling like you have a spring in your step, why not email it in for Meg and I to see, via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk
