

MUGS MATTERS

HELLO folks!

Christmas is coming and we are just a buzzing in the Morris Minor garage as we prepare to get festive.

Let's face it, we all need cheering up don't we?! Meg and I have just said goodnight to our friends in the bee hive as they prepare for their winter snooze.

Not bad eh?, while the world goes crazy around them, the honey bees can tuck themselves up in a nice warm hive and enjoy some lovely dreams.

They have fed themselves until they burst, ready for the winter warmer and Meg and I have made sure their hive is warm and dry.

If you like bees, why not look around this page, because the latest Mugs is dedicated to our pals the honey bees. Why not drop Meg and I a line and tell us whether you like honey, if you are frightened of being stung or what your favourite insect is.

Please just email them via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk and who knows you may win a wee prize. MUG

COMPETITION CORNER

Honey, am I having a wonderful dream?

Ha! ha, hello folks, you have found Meg and I adopting the old bee mantra and taking a few well earned zzzzs.

Our pals in the beehive have settled down for the winter and as our garage was so warm, we decided to bunk on down to.

Only thing was, because there were so many bees around and so much buzzing going on, we started to dream about bees and lots of them.

And once you dream about bees, you then start thinking about food and in the bees' case, honey and lots of the golden stuff.

They don't call it nectar for nothing! When we woke up, we told our pal Peter Rigg the Artist about our dream and before we could say, "honey on toast for breakfast!", Peter had drawn a whizz bang cartoon for today's fun competition.

All you have to do is look at the maze and find your way round to the honey pot. It's so simple, then why not colour in too and have some real fun.

Then why not send in your colourful entries in and we might reward you. Send in via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk

COMPETITION CORNER

Meg and I are continuing to bumble along and hope you are getting a buzz out of Mugs Matters this issue!

As you will now gather, we are obsessed by bees and especially ones which produced that lovely nectar, they call honey.

We love it so much, we have it on toast, bread, porridge and just about anything which needs making sweet.

We bet you don't realise just how much hard work the bees put in to making the honey, it's a job and a half, we can tell you.

So next time you enjoy a teaspoon of the golden stuff, remember the effort put in to it. And if you are not all honeyed out, why not join in today's wordsearch competition, all you have to do is find the nine words.

And if you do it in record time, you won't get stung! It is all just for fun, so enjoy, but feel free to email us too say how you got on and who knows there may be a prize. Just send in via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk
