

MUGS MATTERS

HELLO FOLKS!

Finally Minor enthusiasts we are getting there. The bad weather is slowly drifting away and the snowdrops and daffodils are springing up all over the place.

And that means Meg and I can come out of hibernation and start having some real fun, instead of staying under the covers and snoozing our way through the days and nights.

Now Spring is officially on its way, Meg and I decided to give our garage a good old clean, but we realised we needed some new buckets and mops to make sure it was done properly.

So we set off to the local shop and the next thing, the road was closed and although we could see the shop and our garage, we couldn't get to them.

Our chum, Michael "Clumsy Pickle" Barnes was watching us out of his bedroom window and so he whipped out his magic drawing pens and came up with a cartoon for today's competition.

It's all set out below, so why not have a wee bit of fun and have a crack at it. It would be good to hear from you all and hear how you have been getting on.

Why not email your winter fun moments in to Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk and you might even win a wee prize. MUG

COMPETITION

It's simply a-mazing folks. Meg and I were planning a Spring clean of our garage and so off we trudged to the shop for some mops and buckets.

That was four hours ago and we still haven't reached the shop and why? because the road is closed and we just can't work our way round to it or back to our garage, we are simply stuck!

We need you clever people to help us, can you do that please? It's all for fun, but we could send you a wee prize if you can help us out of a scrape.

Our pal Michael "Clumsy Pickle" Barnes dug out his best cleaning pinny and drew a great cartoon maze for you to work out.

It's all just for fun as usual, but but we have lots of space on our garage wall if you fancy sending it to us. Send in your efforts via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk

Sticking with the maze fun! Meg and I have been in the garden to water the plants.

And much to our frustration, now we can't reach them either, even though we have dug out our best watering can.

So we need your help folks. Just take a peek at the puzzle and work out how to give the bloomers a drop of water.

It's all for fun, but you could send it over to us, via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk and before you know it, a wee prize might end up on your doorstep, just hope it's not a petal!

Can you find the way through the maze to water the plants?
