

MUGS MATTERS

HELLO FOLKS!

The nights are drawing in and its all hotting up for both Halloween and Guy Fawkes celebrations.

Meg and I love to snuggle up in the garage in the autumn, as the leaves are rustling around us and we are nice and cosy.

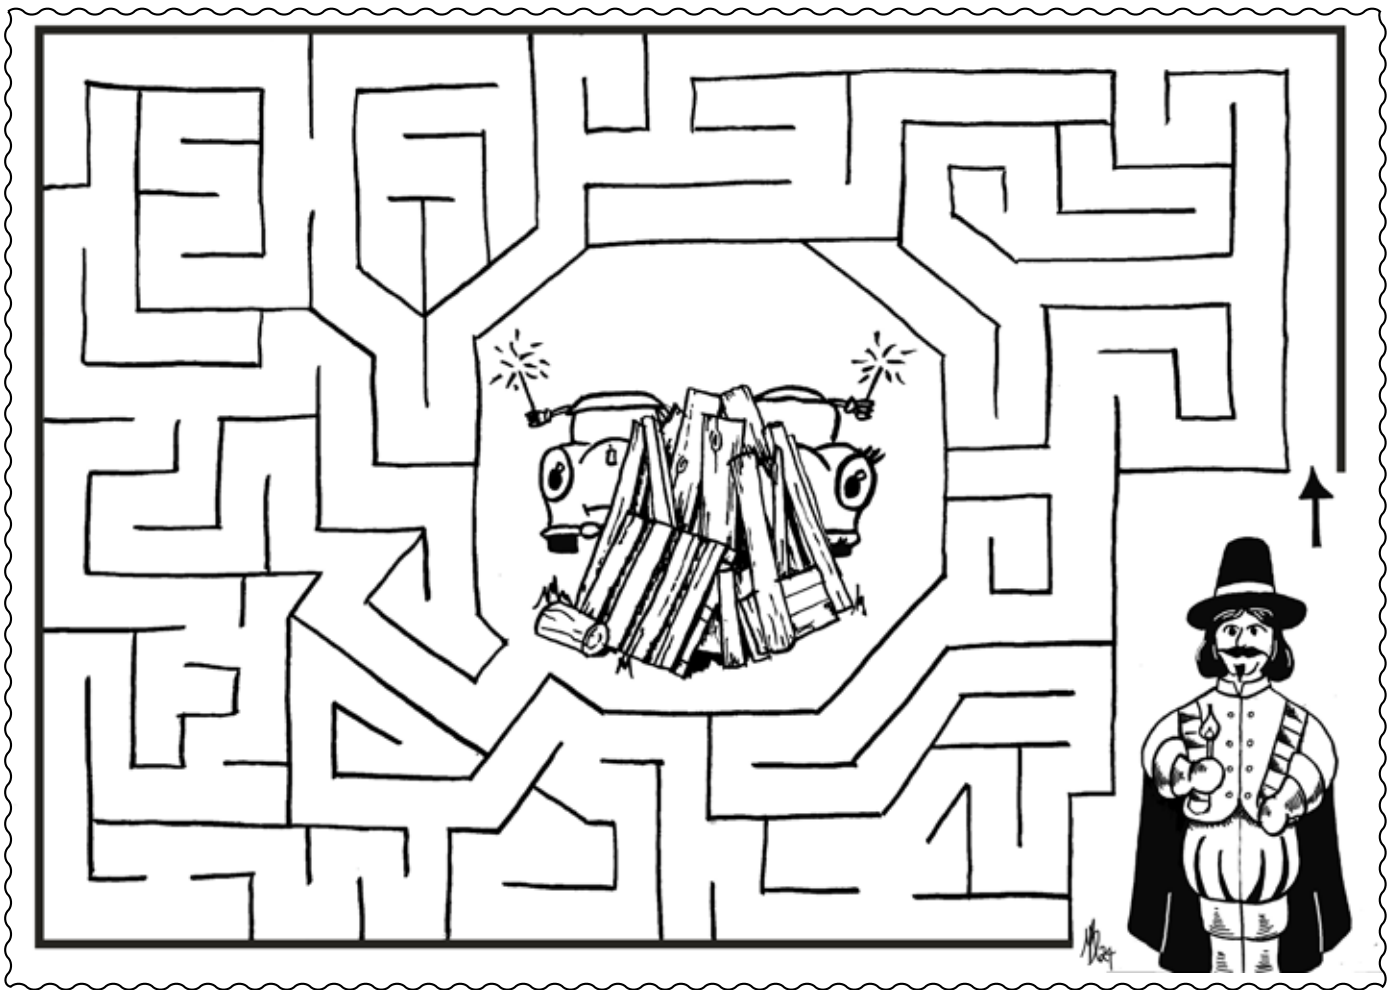

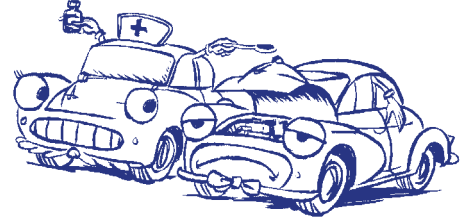

Then we hear the ghosts, cackles and fireworks and we can see the colours through the sky light in the garage and it's a fun old time.

It would be great to hear what you all get up to this autumn and why not send in some tales of fun to and you might even win a wee prize.

Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk

MUG

COMPETITION

Whizz, bang, wallop! – oh no our old chum Guy Fawkes has only gone and dropped his box of matches and inside a maze too!

The old fruit is getting on a bit you see and being a bit of a daftie, he decided to take a stroll around a local maze to clear his head before he had to light the timber.

As luck would have it, our pal, Michael Clumsy Pickle was on hand to draw the whole event, before we touched light the paper.

And so we need you clever lot to find the matches, before we spark into action.

It's all just for fun as usual, but but we have lots of space on our garage wall if you fancy sending the finished product to us. Send in your efforts via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk

COMPETITION CORNER

Rattle those bones and squelch the warts folks. Yes Halloween is here and ready to spook you.

And to get you all in the mood, why not have a go at the rib-ticklingly great wordsearch that Meg and I have got for you today.
