

MUGS MATTERS

HELLO FOLKS!

Yipee – it's officially holiday time and Meg and I can't wait to strip down to our grilles and get on that beach.

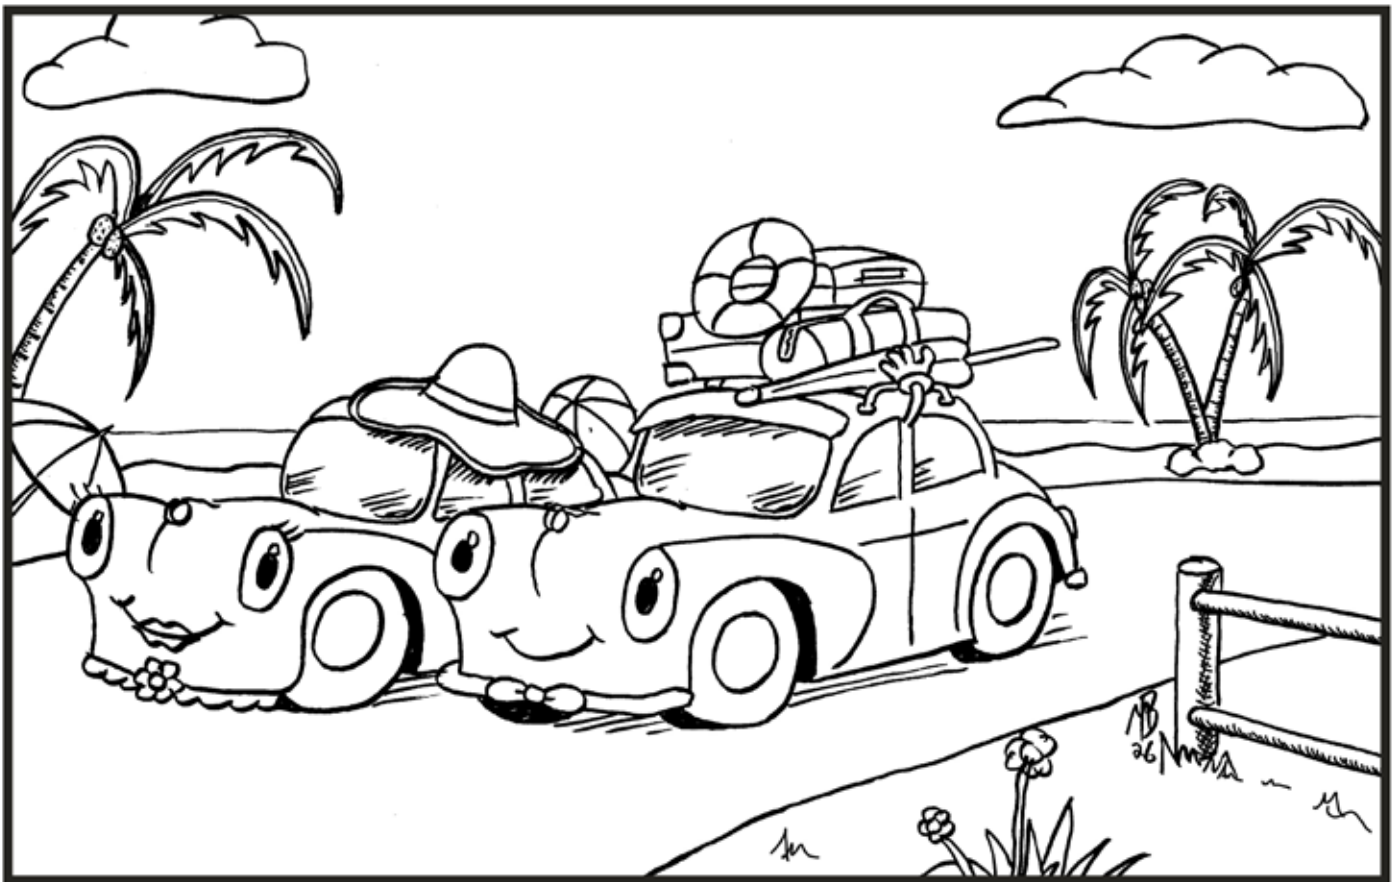

We are heading over the border this year to see our wee pals in bonnie Scotland and take in the Commonwealth Games in Glasgow, too.

Meg fancies herself as a bit of a wheel expert and I don't want to be putting a spoke in the works (get it?), so I have made sure that everything is planned to perfection and we have a jolly good time.

Our pal Michael "Clumsy Pickle" Barnes was a wee bit jealous of our trip, so we decided to let him in on the act and we went for a quick dip in the paddling pool before we left to make sure he didn't miss out on the fun.

It would be great to hear where you are going for your holidays, why not drop us a note via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk and tell Meg and I where you are off to, there might even be a wee prize in it for you.

MUG

COMPETITION

Wash, iron, pack, repeat! Wash, iron, repeat! – blimey this holiday lark is a bit stressful I can tell you.

I will need a holiday once I have packed our suitcases and made sure all the appliances are switched off and we are ready to go, go.

Meg is so excited that we are heading to see our wee cousins north of the border in gorgeous Glasgow and we can't wait for the Commonwealth Games to start and everyone gets into the spirit of some real fun and some serious sport.

Our pal Michael "Clumsy Pickle" Barnes fancies himself as a bit of a cyclist, so he went on a special fact-finding trip and what fun he had tootling about the bonnie banks.

He told us to expect some fantastic venues and hospitality and we are raring to go, so much so that we persuaded Clumsy to dig out his pencils and paints and draw a wee sketch of what we look like on our hols.

All you have to do, for a bit of fun, is colour the stunner in and use as much glitter as you can find to make it a real bobby dazzler.

It's all just to make everyone smile, but it would be great if you could send them in for the garage wall and who knows, there may even be a wee prize in it for you. Just fly it off to Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk

COMPETITION CORNER

Ready, steady, go! – it's nearly time for a real sporting occasion. The Commonwealth Games will be in Glasgow from July 23rd to August 2nd in what promises to be a real spectacular occasion.

Led by the cute mascot, Finnie, a unicorn, which is the national animal of Scotland and he's wearing a traffic cone, which if you know Glasgow, is a symbol of the city!

To celebrate the games, there will be 10 weeks of culture and entertainment in the run up to the sporting occasion which will feature sportsmen and women from 74 nations, in an event which covers an eight mile corridor.

All 10 disciplines will take place across four venues and there will be 200 medals up for grabs for the 3,000 athletes competing.

It really will be fun and to add a little spice to the occasion, for today's competition, Meg and I would like you to write in and tell us what your favourite sport is and why and where you play it. It's all just for fun, but we might send you a chocolate medal if you are first across the finishing line and email it to Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk

MUG MIRTH

Summer smiles are the best for miles, so have a laugh at our latest offering and why not send in your own pearls. If you do, we might send you a prize. Send the howlers to: Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk
